

I'm Maria and it's less than a year I started designing.

Shikh san'an was a prayerful man that he was busy praying his God in a God-fearing way {it's not empty of grace to read his love story} my inspiration of love story is from elevated literature of Iran, this design in front of you is my understanding of love. in Persian literature of Iran love and lovers have different places. in this transcend view love of human to human is commend and the love of human to his creator is high elevated and catechize. All of my idea was inspired by great and palatial literature of Iran.

7 petals that include the Sheikh in it represent that Sheikh's personality like a petal was complimented.

{this poem is related to the seven volleys that are showed in my design like seven petals..

He said seven valleys are on the way,

once past valleys, there is a doorway

There is a valley of quest at the onset, and love from then on, nonstop

The third valley, then, is knowledge,

the fourth valley is one of independence

There is the fifth valley of pure unity,

and then the sixth is amazement

The seventh is the valley of poverty and annihilation, after which you shall not have a way }

pearls embody the purity of love ,and the strings of the pearls that were designed vaultedly represent the prayerful and pious face of Sheikh.broken glasses in my design point at the breakage of Sheikh's character and his disgrace.the lady in my design is sheikh's lover that is giving him a shot of wine, my purpose is that she deceived him into sin. the vaults in the background are 8 doors of heaven and by that I want to show the end of their love story.the breakage of Sheikh's religious character made him free and I showed that freedom in lady's hair and I drew it like wings.and as you look up to her you can see the soar,madness and fly in her hair.

I will tell you the story of sheikh San'an and blasphemous girl.Sheikh San'an lived almost 50 years in Mecca and during this 50 years he was busy praying to God and everyone appreciated him and knew him as a pious man.The story begins when sheikh found himself in a dream that he was in Rome prostrating to an idol.So later on sheikh and his fellows went to Rome , on the way in a veranda sheikh sees a girl and falls in love passionately .Sheikh declares his love and interest to the girl and she rejected the sheikh and said ;you old sheikh shall be ashamed of what you declared , you are old and soon you will pass away , this is not a love tide for you .Afterward sheikh kept pressing her and she said : I will only let you be my lover if you turn your back on religion , be a vinous and prostrate to my idols and burn your holy book.

Henceforth sheikh started drinking ferocity that he forgot about religion ,burned the holy book and worshiped the idols.

So when sheikh's fellows found him turning his back on religion they all left him and moved back to Mecca except one fellow .

And that fellow stayed there with sheikh and prayed for him about 40 nights day in and day out.

And when he met Sheikh he noticed that sheikh's mad love was vanished.

And he told sheikh ; repent for your sin that God will forgive you .

And sheikh and his fellow together moved back to Mecca.

So later on the Christian girl was inspired in a dream to go after sheikh and marry him.

The girl was so confound and didn't know which path shall she take.

Afterward sheikh was informed that the girl converted to a Monotheism.

Sheikh was happy about that ,that her lover now is a Monotheism and he went after her.

And when sheikh met the girl he found him shoeless and low.

And the girl begged sheikh to convert him to Islam .

And when alacrity of faith came into her heart he looked at sheikh and said forgive me for what I have done to you and she passed away caused by Tremendous faith...
